- If the Provider determines that the circumstances that allowed the Customer to opt for service suspension are no longer applicable, the Provider may end the suspension period by giving the Customer no less than 7 days' notice. Upon expiry of this notice, or where otherwise agreed between the Parties, the suspension of the service shall cease and normal billing shall apply from that point onwards
- If at any point the Customer is in arrears for any invoice or charge, the Provider may reject any request to suspend the service (regardless of any eligibility under clauses 6.3 and 6.4 above) or, where the Customer falls into arrears during a period of service suspension, the Provider may terminate the service suspension immediately and without notice
